Re: Still More Money for Lawsuits

Dear Supervisor Vecchio:

Now you and the rest of your Town Board want to transfer $16,000 from one town department account to another account. And you want to pay the law firm of Devitt, Spellman, Barrett, LLP another $20,000 up to a total fee not to exceed $40,000 to defend the Federal Civil Rights suit against Smithtown brought by the plaintiffs Caldarola – all because you folks will not enforce the town's own code to make the St. Phillip and James Church obey the same laws that apply to everyone else. You all should be so accommodating to the other faiths. Vecchio, you have been vote buying on the backs of innocent homeowners and the taxpayers are footing the bill for this lawsuit. (What would Madam Bernadine think?) And will ya be pavin' the church's parking lot this year with town asphalt and work crews? Sorry, I forgot. Ed Lynch, the Grand Marshall of the 2005 St. Patrick's Day Parade, is no longer Highway Superintendent. Query: Did Lynch get paid to withdraw his consent to getting rid of that dead end street adjoining 10 Springbriar Lane in Kings Park? Who was the builder? Has the town released the performance bond yet? Find me another location in Smithtown or anywhere on Long Island where a dead end street directly abuts a cul-de-sac. Ain't none.

How much has the Fallica Federal Civil Rights suit cost the town's taxpayers? It must be well over $100,000 now. And Vecchio, McCarthy and Wehrheim, you were once worried about a non-lawsuit lawsuit costing the town money so you caved in and blew $20,000 on it. Carve an "S" on your tongues and an "H" on your heads. The Izzo Leaf Bag Case cost the town $1.3 million plus lawyers' fees because that ignorant fop – John Zollo, your former Town Attorney – failed to file a Bill of Particulars – a legal document as easy to fill out as an employment application. Why? Because you knew for years that the town had buried 50,000 leaf bags on the Izzo's property illegally.

How about the town's victory in the Breco suit? Legal fees were in the millions. The town had to add $500,000 more to cap its victory. If that jury believed you they'd believe anyone. When is your deposition in the federal civil rights suits scheduled? Embarrass yourself. Tell the truth. Bring along the dumbest person God ever put legs under. The runt can drive. Pat, when I smell a rat, I know that you are somewhere in the woodpile. And, yes, in a world of ass kissers, sycophants, brown noses and alterkakers and phonies, alas, there is you Councilman Robert Creighton and you Councilwoman Patricia Biancaniello. Besides posing for animal crackers at each Town Council meeting what do you do? We already know what the crooks are up to.

Yours truly,

Lawrence N. Gray, Esq.
